

Selection criteria for assessment of applications for 2017-2018 Commonwealth Rutherford Fellowships tenable in the United Kingdom

	PERSONAL & ACADEMIC BACKGROUND	QUALITY OF PROPOSAL	IMPACT POTENTIAL
Grading criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Educational background Academic distinctions or prizes Publications Career progression to date Personal statement Referees' reports Supervisor statement Professional memberships Voluntary and leadership experience 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Extent to which the work programme has been well researched and a suitable host identified Extent to which project builds on past experience of candidate – likely value added Degree of innovation and clarity of presentation. Relevance to field and likely impact Feasibility of project completion within the tenure of the award Potential for future publication or other dissemination Potential for ongoing collaboration 	Extent to which the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proposed work will contribute to the excellence of UK research, to help sustain recognition of the UK higher education system as world-class and internationally competitive Proposed work will develop long-term research networks between the candidate's home country and the UK, i.e. will build strategic relationships Proposed work will develop and expand knowledge, with argued potential for translation of knowledge and ideas into successful outcomes, growth, or social wellbeing Candidate suggests how the impact of the potential benefits of the work might be assessed Candidate appears motivated and has potential for promotion Candidate appears able to assume future leadership roles, both professionally and in wider society